BICYCLE COURIERS

Bring Election Returns from the Country Precincts.

IT WAS THROUGH THE MUDDY ROADS

OF Ohio County that the Wheelmen Struggled, and Their Work, Taking this into Consideration, Was Fine. Stamp, Schofield, Riheldaffer and Worls Were the Plucky Quartette Who Did the Work.

The wheelmen of Wheeling have always been at the front in tests of speed and endurance that tended to demonstrate the usefulness of the wheel, and the INTELLIGENCER has never been behind in seconding these efforts and encouraging them. The road races and relay rides brought home to Wheeling the facts that the cycle has possibilities that were never dreamed of a few years back. There is one great disadvantage under which wheelmen in America work—the almost invariable poor quality of the highways. In the face of this, and the further facts that the recent rains have put the roads of Ohio county in an execrable condition, the performance of a quartette of local cyclists in gathering the election returns for the INTELLIGENCER from the outlying districts that could not be reached by telephone or telegraph, was remarkable and eminently praiseworthy.

In no other sport, surely, in no other country, probably, are its devotees so enthusiastic in its cause and ready to sacrifice pleasure and comfort for anything that will advance the sport. This is true of four Wheeling wheelmen, who yesterday volunteered to bring in the election returns for this paper from several of the out-of-the-way polling places, including Glenn's Run school house and the brick school house, in Richland district; Adams' school house, in Ritchie district; Beech Glen school house and Cool Breeze school house, in Triadelphia district; Crumbacker's in Liberty district. The four wheelmen who did this special work were Jason O. Stamp, at whose suggestion the scheme was started, Walter Worls, Herbert Riheldaffer and Ellsworth Schofield.

Stamp started for Crumbacker's, eleven miles out the pike, at 5 o'clock, Riheldaffer left the INTELLIGENCER office for the brick school house in Richland at 6 o'clock, Schofield mounted and started for Glenn's run at 7 o'clock, and Worls got off at 8 o'clock for Adams' school house in Ritchie.

The riders came in at various hours last night, with the returns. Worls was the first man to report with the returns from Adams' school house at 10 p. m. Stamp and Riheldaffer got in at 11 p. m., and Schofield arrived at 11:30. The success of the scheme to get the returns in this novel manner was complete.

Child Burned to Death.

A most distressing occurrence took place at the home of William Bonar, who resides on Fork Ridge, Marshall county, Monday about noon, by which his three-year-old boy, Ray, was burned to death. The child had been down stairs with its mother in the kitchen, and left and went up stairs by itself. Soon after, Mrs. Bonar was attracted by screams. She hurriedly ran up stairs and by the time she had arrived on the scene, found her child's clothing all in a blaze and almost entirely burned off. Its whole body was burned to a crisp, and it was hardly recognizable as a human being, even by the mother. No one except an infant, in a cradle, was in the room at the time, and it is a wonder that the burning child in its excitement, had not run over to it and set its clothes afire. Dr. S. M. Steele was summoned from Mountville, but nothing could be done for the suffering child. It only lived about three hours. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon. The grief stricken parents are well known and have the sympathy of many friends in the county.

"Yield Not to Misfortune."

I was afflicted with catarrh last autumn. During the month of October I could neither taste or smell, and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured me.—Marcus George Shantz, Rahway, N. J. I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostum, 45 Warren avenue, Chicago, Ill. Cream Balm is agreeable.

GREATEST ON RECORD.

The Whole Town Turns Out to Bid Johnny A. Good-bye Baby, Bye, Oh. Nothing was ever seen in Ohio county like the impromptu demonstration or jollification over the "general result" last night. Tenthousand people were on the streets and there were very few Democrats left. Mayor's band was out, with two or three drum corps, and about four wagon loads of red fire were burned. Tin horns, bells, whistles, drums and other things were employed to make all the noise possible. The procession moved up town about ten o'clock and came back about 12, and the square in front of the INTELLIGENCER office was crowded with shouting Republicans for several hours.

In the meantime, all the bulletins continued to be favorable to the Republican cause, and each one increased the enthusiasm of the multitude of men that stood out in the street and cheered. The sight as the procession came down Market street was unsurpassed in local history, and at 2 a. m. there was no diminution in either the enthusiasm or the size of the crowd. It was a glorious victory, gloriously celebrated.

At the Grand.

The largest audience of the season assembled at the Grand Opera House last night to witness the second performance in this city of N. S. Wood in his new play, "The Orphans of New York." Mr. Wood needs no recommendation to Wheeling theater goers, as he never was known to have anything but a good show. His company is a strong one and the scenery beautiful. A grand family matinee will be given this afternoon, and to-night's performance will close the engagement.

PIERCE Guar-antes a CURE OR MONEY RETURNED.

About two years ago I was so sick with womb trouble that I could not cross the room without fainting away. The doctors could do me no good and told me I must die, but my mother got me "Pierce's Favorite Prescription," and in one week I began to feel stronger. After taking a dozen bottles I am as well as I ever was; free from all pains and aches and all due to Dr. Pierce's Prescription.
